Day 5: Agra: – 21st March 2027 | Sunday

Rise early to see the magnificent Taj Mahal at dawn. Commenced by Emperor Shah Jahan in 1631 and completed in 1653, it was dedicated to his beloved second wife, Mumtaz Mahal, who tragically died in childbirth. Enter through the West gate with its arch framing and revealing the beauty of the Taj within.

Take time to marvel at the Taj's unique and stunning symmetry, and the exquisite pearly marble, bathed in the pink light of dawn. Explore many perspectives from the platforms, pavilions and gardens around the main tomb, and the marble walls decorated with a myriad of semi-precious stones in the 'pietra dura' inlay work. Later, return to your hotel for a late breakfast. Further tour Agra's imposing fort on the banks of the holy Yamuna River. Built by Mughal Emperor Akbar in 1565, it was also home to Emperor Shah Jahan, who built the Taj Mahal and was later imprisoned here by his son.

Enjoy lunch (included – A South Indian Treat). Also visit a marble-inlay workshop, to see the intricate work and unique skill which goes into each finely detailed piece of marble inlay, using a variety of beautiful semi-precious stones. Evening visiting local shops in Agra. Return to hotel for leisure evening on your own. Overnight at Agra.
Meals – Breakfast, Lunch

E-Tourist Visa (India)

India's e-Tourist Visa is an online travel authorization available to citizens of eligible countries. It allows foreign nationals to visit India for tourism, short-term medical treatment or casual business visits. The application process is fully digital with approvals typically granted within 72 hours. The visa is valid for durations of 30 days (double entry), 1 year or 5 years (multiple entries). It provides a fast, convenient and efficient way to travel to India.

Application Process:

1. Visit below official Indian e-Visa website to apply.
<https://indianvisaonline.gov.in/evisa/tvoa.html>
2. Upload your passport bio page (PDF, 10 KB–300 KB) and photo (JPEG, 10 KB–1 MB; light/white background, head centered, no shadows).
3. Pay the non-refundable fee—varies by duration.
4. Receive ETA by email, print it and carry it during travel.
5. Arrive in India via one of the designated 28 airports or 5 seaports; e-Visa applies only at these entry points. Biometric data (photo and fingerprints) will be collected upon arrival.
6. Exit may be through any authorized immigration checkpoint.
